

CST Bulletin 1985-90: letters with fewer than three on the topic

Re: Legionnaire's disease (No. 407)

Re: setting up working party between speech therapy training and management (No. 407, 411)

Re: management budgeting (No. 408)

Re: speech therapy for CVA/Hi children US v UK (No. 408)

Re: BPVT v EPVT scores (No. 408)

Re: assessment of natural communication (No. 408)

Re: van Riper book (No. 408)

Re: CELF (No. 410)

Re: public awareness of speech therapy (Nos 410, 415)

Re: use of Amerind or Makaton with aphasic adults (No. 411)

Re: patch system of community care (Nos 411, 436)

Re: hemiplegic writing prosthesis (No. 411)

Re: petition to Secretary of State for Social Services (No. 412)

Re: Voice Research Society (No. 412)

Re: chromosome 22 ring form defect (No. 412)

Re: use of jigsaws in rehabilitation (No. 413)

Re: vocal tract dysfunction/V-P incompetence (No. 413)

Re: children's AST (No. 414)

Re: Hanen (No. 414)

Re: difficulty in members getting involved in CST committees (No. 414)

Re: meeting by speech therapists interested in counselling (No. 415)

Re: book on personal experience of aphasia (Nos 415, 424)

Re: info on exercises used by STs (No. 415)

Re: ITPA (Nos 416, 433)

Re: gastro-oesophageal reflux and laryngitis (No. 416)

Re: City Lit stroke group (No. 417)/City dysphasic group (No. 455)

Re: graduates leaving the profession - survey (No. 418)

Re: Paediatric Interest People (PIP) (No. 418)

Re: speech therapy for young disabled (No. 418)

Re: education-funded posts (Nos 419, 421)

Re: tardive dyskinesia (No. 419)

Re: PACS pictures (No. 419)

Re: ?association for speech therapists with audiology qualification (No. 419)

Re: shortage of speech therapists (No. 419)

Re: Quirk (No. 419 x2)

Re: laryngectomy club (No. 420)

Re: sensory integration therapy (No. 420)

Re: hearing loss in people with mental handicaps (No. 421)

Re: ?appeal to send cleft palate team to Sri Lanka (No. 421)

Re: vowel centralisation (No. 421)

Re: Popat treatment scheme for phonological disorder in children (Nos 421, 424)

Re: Kingdon-Ward ST Trust dissolution (No. 421)

Re: Oxford management course (No. 422)

Re: teaching methods for hearing impaired (No. 423)

Re: answer machine for CST/BJDC (No. 423)

Re: language and epilepsy (No. 424)

Re: language programmes for complex sentence development (No. 424)

Re: cued articulation (Nos 424, 437)

Re: multicultural policy (No. 425)

Re: ?CST funding for regional roles (No. 425)

Re: ADA (No. 426)

Re: need for fair reviews (No. 426)

Re: language curriculum in LD(M) schools (No. 426)

Re: project in rhythm and speech (No. 426)

Re: Mothercare spoon (No. 427)

Re: home visits (No. 427)

Re: name for district speech therapists' groups (No. 427)

Re: intensive therapy - for preschoolers with speech and language delay and mild mental handicap (No. 427) – for children in special schools (No. 454)

Re: male speech therapist attire (Nos 428, 430)

Re: integration of (moderately/severely) language disordered children (Nos 428, 440)

Re: Amnesia Association (No. 429)

Re: Caring at home (book) (No. 429)

Re: restrictions on advertising (No. 429 x2)

Re: maternity leave (No. 430)

Re: terminology (No. 442), eg 'mentally handicapped' (No. 430), 'feeding' v 'eating' (No. 429)

Re: The Special Needs Company Limited (No. 430)

Re: methods of note keeping (No. 430)

Re: intensive groups (No. 430)

Re: conductive education (No. 431)

Re: agenesis of the corpus callosum (No. 431)

Re: wood dust and the larynx (No. 432)

Re: Birmingham ex-students association (Nos 432, 439)

Re: collaboration between education and speech therapy courses (No. 432, follow-up to article in No. 429)

Re: LCST v DipCST (No. 433)

Re: speech therapy~multiple sclerosis (No. 433)

Re: hereditary progressive degenerative spastic paraparesis (No. 433)

Re: confidentiality (No. 435)

Re: MPAG study (No. 435)

Re: book on left handedness (No. 435)

Re: post-encephalitic child (No. 435)

Re: Association for Stammerers (Nos 435, 440)

Re: chairing regional meetings (No. 436)

Re: older children with high level language delays/disorders (No. 436)

Re: patient with surface dyslexia (No. 436)

Re: NUK Special Care Products (Germany) (No. 438)

Re: left-sided blepharospasm (No. 438)

Re: assessing surgical voice restoration following laryngectomy (No. 439)

Re: songs and rhymes suitable for teenagers and young adults with SLD (No. 460)

Re: ?SIG child development centers (No. 439)

Re: centralised waiting list/appointments (No. 440)

Re: vocational training for new STs (Nos 441, 455)

Re: speech therapist training needs in IM&T (No. 441)

Re: ESL on Körner? (No. 441)

Re: non-degenerative myotonic dystrophy (No. 441)

Re: speech therapy with cerebral palsied child (No. 441)

Re: representing /k/ with a gun (Nos 442, 444 x2)

Re: Huntington's disease (Nos 442, 454)

Re: profile of language competence for school leavers (No. 442)

Re: speech therapy~teenagers with physical handicaps/specific learning difficulties (No. 442)

Re: This little puffin (No. 443)

Re: Monitor – speech therapy research into motor neurone disease (No. 443)

Re: study of twins in which at least one has a language disorder (No. 444)

Re: radical oral surgery (No. 444)

Re: joint funding of speech therapy posts (No. 445)

Re: support network for speech therapists involved in providing evidence for personal injury claims (No. 445)

Re: research into juvenile arthritis with head and neck involvement (No. 445)

Re: myalgic encephomyelitis (No. 445)

Re: single case studies (No. 445)

Re: Spastics Society Speech Therapists' Action Group (No. 446)

Re: national oracy project (No. 446)

Re: pre-senile dementia~high-pitched voice (No. 446)

Re: speech therapy~elderly long-stay wards (No. 446)

Re: materials for listening work (No. 446)

Re: plea to clinical supervisors (No. 447)

Re: lack of suitable careers information (No. 447)

Re: Derbyshire Language Scheme training materials (No. 447)

Re: play therapy (No. 447)

Re: paediatric CVA (No. 447)

Re: Voice Network (No. 449)

Re: DAF (Nos 450, 453)

Re: Linguistics Association of Great Britain (No. 450)

Re: therapy contract (Nos 450, 454)

Re: using music etc with mentally handicapped (No. 450)

Re: costing speech therapy services (Nos 450, 453)

Re: text users help scheme (No. 451, College news in No. 461)

Re: needs and interests of overseas members (No. 451)

Re: Samaritans by post (No. 451)

Re: poor clinical attendance (Nos 452, 454)

Re: speech therapy contribution to testing for national curriculum (No. 453)

Re: policy between speech therapy department and education authority (No. 454)

Re: children with unusual chromosomal abnormalities (No. 455)

Re: Portage workers (No. 457)

Re: directory of STs with counseling training/qualifications (No. 458)

Re: project re: marketing and profile of ST service (No. 458)

Re: deaf-blind man (No. 458)

Re: local management of schools (No. 459)

Re: health authority restructuring (No. 460)

Re: communication therapists abroad (No. 462)

Re: lack of thanks for information provision (No. 463)

Re: reorganisation of community clinic service (No. 463)

Re: setting up pre-school service (No. 463)

Re: family centers (No. 463)

Re: proposed course in Plymouth (No. 464)

Re: group training for parents (No. 464)

Re: speech therapy~young physically disabled adults (No. 464); speech therapy forms for physically handicapped school (No. 459)