

CST Bulletin 1991-95: letters with fewer than three on the topic

Re: sign analysis (No. 465)

Re: quality care exhibition (No. 465)

Re: materials for Romania (No. 465)

Re: links with international organisations (No. 467)

Re: K rner (No. 467)

Re: College AGMs (Nos 467, 469)

Re: thanks to Ann Parker and Judy Halden (No. 467)

Re: student sponsorship (No. 467)

Re: recipe book of easy to swallow food (No. 467)

Re: managing an inner-city caseload (No. 468 x2)

Re: private practice (No. 468)

Re: action songs for teenagers with SLD (No. 468)

Re: pre-language and the national curriculum (No. 468)

Re: Communication Therapists International (No. 469)

Re: SLT~children with emotional, behavioural (and learning) difficulties (Nos 469, 488)

Re: multi-disciplinary communication (Nos 469, 472)

Re: use of alternative medicine for child with dyspraxia (No. 470)

Re: professional development (Nos 471, 493)

Re: school entry speech and language checklist (No. 471)

Re: ME and dysphonia (No. 471)

Re: membership card (No. 472 x2)

Re: availability of the Boston tests (No. 472)

Re: ST~AIDS patients (No. 472)

Re: ST~visually impaired (Nos 472, 479)

Re: neurolinguistic programming (No. 473)

Re: clinical audit (Nos 475, 499)

Re: AGM Northern region (No. 475)

Re: nose blowing skills (No. 475)

Re: ST~frontal lobe damage (No. 475)

Re: cognitive neuropsychology with developmental speech and language disorders (Nos 475, 476)

Re: echolalia within autism (No. 475)

Re: liaison network between SLTs and mainstream schools (No. 475)

Re: info on group for phonologically delayed or disordered preschool children (No. 475)

Re: ST assessments for head injury (No. 475), pragmatics in head injury (No. 480)

Re: fixed term therapy (No. 476)

Re: research register – language impaired children (No. 476)

Re: long-term effects of operative procedure for drooling (No. 476)

Re: service provision in mainstream schools (No. 476)

Re: photographic image of the profession (No. 477)

Re: aphasia working party questionnaire (No. 477)

Re: care homes - link carers (No. 477), lack of carry-over (No. 486)

Re: client questionnaire of SLT service (No. 479)

Re: dysfluency a job bar (No. 479)

Re: supervision (No. 479 x2)

Re: Draft addendum to Circular 22/89 (No. 479)

Re: ST~dyslexia (Nos 480, 503)

Re: multidisciplinary support within mainstream schools of children from 7-11 with speech and language disorders (No. 480)

Re: management of saliva control (Nos 480, 490)

Re: professional insurance – necessary? (No. 480, response from Chair in No. 481)

Re: paper recycling (No. 481)

Re: team for preschool eating/drinking problems (No. 481)

Re: Parkinson's disease - Hammersmith hospital programme (No. 481), 'going blank' (No. 488)

Re: LEAs purchasing SLT from health authorities (Nos 482, 484)

Re: SLT~teenagers with SLD (No. 482)

Re: autism research widening boundary (No. 483)

Re: outreach SLT service in mainstream school to children with moderate learning difficulties (No. 483)

Re: drug-induced dysphonia (No. 483)

Re: SLT flexible working patterns (No. 483)

Re: setting up SLT service for people with a hearing impairment (No. 483)

Re: head and neck rep for dysphagia advisory panel (No. 484)

Re: limitations of formal assessments of expressive vocabulary (No. 484)

Re: children with cochlear implant (No. 484)

Re: database for speech data (No. 484)

Re: school age children caseload management (No. 484)

Re: retiring reception for Moira McGovern (No. 484), Sandra Rowan (No. 486)

Re: oro-motor programme (No. 485)

Re: SLT~HIV disease (No. 485)

Re: sensory integration (No. 485)

Re: ?prognosis for childhood papilloema (No. 485)

Re: evaluation of groups providing intensive assessment/therapy for children (No. 485)

Re: SLT~transsexual patients (No. 486)

Re: career breaks (No. 486)

Re: language programmes for school age children (No. 486)

Re: ?questionnaires for community paediatric speech therapy (No. 487)

Re: NOMAS (Nos 480, 488)

Re: ?expressive language schemes for children with severe learning difficulties (No. 488)

Re: children adopted from foreign countries (Nos 488, 490)

Re: home visiting safety (No. 488)

Re: botulinim toxin (No. 488)

Re: consumer satisfaction/client survey (Nos 489, 521)

Re: acquired sudden onset stammering in adults (No. 489)

Re: language resource and assessment package for children in secondary modern school with moderate learning difficulties (No. 489)

Re: community multi-disciplinary team (in adult neurology) (Nos 489, 510)

Re: research documents produced by DoH (No. 489)

Re: NHS Retirement Fellowship (No. 489)

Re: facilitated communication (No. 490)

Re: award to Exeter SLT service (No. 490)

Re: peer review (No. 490)

Re: retirement of Alison Clarke (No. 490, picture in No. 493)

Re: child with psychogenic dysphonia (No. 491)

Re: Pendleton fluency project (Nos 491, 506)

Re: BAS bursary fund (No. 492)

Re: Jordanhill alumni project (No. 493)

Re: head and neck cancer information (No. 493)

Re: child protection (No. 493)

Re: non-directive communication therapy (No. 494)

Re: difficulty acquiring test forms (Nos 494, 496)

Re: Christmas card competition (Nos 494, 495)

Re: health gains of SLT for child and adult stammerers (No. 495)

Re: non-verbal scales for preschool children (No. 495)

Re: joint health and education funding of SLT post (No. 495)

Re: study into career intentions of speech and language therapy students (No. 495)

Re: dysphagia training (No. 495 x2)

Re: counselling within SLT service (No. 495)

Re: use of story telling in therapy (No. 496)

Re: unpaid SLT internship in ENT (Nos 496, 515)

Re: effective CSLT service (No. 496)

Re: identity card scheme (No. 496 – follow-up to item in No. 491)

Re: SLT service to the homeless (No. 497)

Re: ?usefulness of AFASIC checklists (No. 497)

Re: laryngograph wanted (No. 497)

Re: SLTs funded by 'section 11' (No. 497)

Re: post-graduate courses in fluency (No. 497)

Re: CREST (No. 498)

Re: school services review (No. 498)

Re: development of a communicative dependency measure (No. 498)

Re: study of carers' anxiety in dysphasia (No. 499)

Re: revision of Pragmatics profile of early communication skills (No. 499)

Re: PEAK information system (No. 499)

Re: unit for people with brain injuries and post traumatic amnesia (No. 499)

Re: launch of review of SLT services in the Republic of Ireland (No. 499)

Re: tongue tie (Nos 500, 519)

Re: aerophonoscope demonstration (No. 500)

Re: dementia conference (No. 500)

Re: study day on attention deficit disorder (No. 500)

Re: speech and language therapy provision in schools (Nos 500, 502)

Re: ultrasound exposure may cause subtle neurological developmental problems (No. 501)

Re: Metaphon developments (Nos 502, 512)

Re: review of service to pre-school and school-age children with hearing impairments (No. 502)

Re: functional profile for elderly people with communication and/or swallowing problems (No. 503)

Re: pre-school screening (No. 503)

Re: IPSEA (Independent panel for special education advice) (Nos 503, 504)

Re: assessment aphasia/dementia (No. 503)

Re: marketing to GPs (No. 503)

Re: advice requested on ingressive clicks (No. 504)

Re: intonation therapy in mild learning difficulties (No. 504)

Re: review of the state of the NHS (No. 504)

Re: SLT role in health prevention (No. 504)

Re: assessment for need for SLT service (No. 505)

Re: model of SLT care (No. 505)

Re: preschool/school age checklist for outcome measure (No. 505)

Re: audit of clinical outcome of hearing impaired children and national survey of SLT services to this population (No. 505)

Re: Times article on aphasia therapy (Nos 504, 505)

Re: working in remote areas (No. 505), rural area (No. 506)

Re: dysphonia group treatment (No. 506)

Re: practical experience sought by pre-SLT student (No. 506)

Re: trophic facial stimulator (No. 507)

Re: terminology for matching children's needs with SLT service provision (No. 507)

Re: dysphagia care pathway (No. 507)

Re: register of language opportunities for dysphasic people and their carers (Nos 507, 510)

Re: checklists for national curriculum vocabulary (No. 507)

Re: locum opportunity (No. 507), bank staff (No. 517)

Re: Children's Order in Northern Ireland (No. 509)

Re: assessments of spoken and sign comprehension in hearing impaired children (No. 509)

Re: comments on Measurement in neurological rehabilitation by Derek Wade (No 509-10)

Re: personal experience of aphonia (No. 509)

Re: Pica and regurgitation (No. 510)

Re: speech and language therapy~secondary schools (No. 510)

Re: cross-infection guidelines (No. 510)

Re: ?change departmental name (No. 510)

Re: PhD studentship (No. 512)

Re: misrepresentation in Best magazine (No. 512)

Letter from Chair (No. 513)

Re: audiological service for adults (No. 513)

Re: student induction package (No. 513)

Re: Language on Loan (No. 515)

Re: speech and language therapy liaison teacher post (No. 515)

Re: Child accident prevention trust (No. 515)

Re: autism – group work with autistic children (No. 515)

Re: British Association for Performing Arts Medicine (No. 516)

Re: improving communication with GPs (No. 516)

Re: instrumentation for diagnosis and therapy for voice (No. 516)

Re: expansion of GP fundholding scheme (No. 517)

Re: directory of non-medical research on disability (No. 517)

Re: resources for children with multiple profound learning disability (No. 517)

Re: protocol for assessment and ongoing management of patients with PEG (No. 517)

Re: empowerment (Nos 518, 519)

Re: inaccurate report of Dublin course changes (No. 518)

Re: case supervision group – vacant place (No. 518)

Re: information base on Huntington's disease (No. 518)

Re: qualitative methodology in research (No. 519)

Re: ?linguistic benefit of early diagnosis of hearing (No. 519)

Re: use of TROG and short form BPVS (No. 519)

Re: music therapy (No. 519)

Re: NHCSS change of name and affiliation (No. 520)

Re: onset of voice disorders in users of PC voice recognition dictation systems (No. 520)

Re: setting up private preschool group for children with communication difficulties (No. 520)

Re: use of symbols in the general community for people with learning disabilities (No. 521)

Re: NHS changes (No. 521)

Re: view on stammering (No. 521)

Re: child with post-meningitis severe communication and visual impairments (No. 521)

Re: Hanen parent-skilling project (No. 521)

Re: NAPLIC (No. 522)

Re: use of drama with children with severe learning difficulties (No. 522)

Re: conference proceedings – communication and the mentally ill patient (No. 523)

Re: domiciliary service for adults with acquired communication and/or swallowing disorders (No. 523)

Re: outreach service for children in mainstream school with significant language difficulties (No. 523)

Re: Paget Gorman sign system (No. 524)

Re: interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary practice (No. 524)

Re: conference on developmental and acquired language disorders (No. 524)