

CST Bulletin 1981-85: letters with fewer than three on the topic

- Re: A Level Biology – speech therapy as a topic (Nos 345, 347)
- Re: discarding name 'College' (No. 345)
- Re: Secretaries of SIGs (No. 345)
- Re: criticism of CST questionnaire (No. 345 x2)
- Re: Association for Stammerers (No. 346)
- Re: clinical non-attendance (No. 346)
- Re: management course for speech therapists (Nos 346, 356)
- Re: stroke clubs and groups (No. 346)
- Re: Edinburgh masker (No. 346)
- Re: speech therapy for adult stammerers and adolescents (Nos 347, 350)
- Re: open day (Nos 347, 402)
- Re: swimming aids for laryngectomees (No. 347)
- Re: Scottish SIG in mental handicap (No. 347)
- Re: article by V Eaton Griffiths (No. 347)
- Re: speech therapists working with pre-school children (No. 348)
- Re: CST subscriptions (No. 348).
- Re: rehabilitation of young people with head injuries (No. 348)/children (No. 359)
- Re: speech aids research (No. 348)
- Re: registration of speech therapists (No. 349)
- Re: Makaton (No. 349)
- Re: Margaret Morris Movement programmes (No. 350)
- Re: associate membership of CST (No. 350)
- Re: past/future verb cards (No. 350)
- Re: communication aids (No. 352)
- Re: Medical campaign against nuclear weapons (No. 354)
- Re: preschool parental intervention programme (No. 354)
- Re: future of College (No. 354)
- Re: entitlement to MCST (No. 354 x2)
- Re: students' clinical practice (No. 354 x2)
- Re: adult basic education for aphasics (No. 355)

Re: MTDDA in German (No. 355)

Re: artificial larynx (No. 355)

Re: rubella immunity (No. 355)

Re: assessment for prosodic abnormality in Parkinson's disease (No. 356)

Re: speech therapy~psychiatry references (No. 356)

Re: LARSP (No. 359)

Re: identity and information card for severely speech handicapped patients (No. 361)

Re: rural laryngectomy patients (Nos 362, 369)

Re: ignorance and misunderstanding of speech therapy role (Nos 362, 363)

Re: assessment of cerebral palsied individuals (No. 362)

Re: uniform and clothing allowance (No. 362)

Re: Amerind (No. 363)

Re: nursery nurse placements with speech therapists (No. 364)

Re: Society for Research in Rehabilitation (Nos 364, 385)

Re: Checklist of behaviours and skills of children showing autistic features (No. 365)

Re: suggestion for CST adviser on phonological disability (No. 365)

Re: Dyslexia Association (Nos 365, 367)

Re: five-week course of language therapy for school-aged children with severe language delay
No. 366)

Re: disabled graduates (No. 366)

Re: research project – videoing babies (No. 366)

Re: supplier of Charles Merrill Publishing Company tests and assessment materials (No. 366)

Re: Reynell Developmental Language Scales (No. 367)

Re: language curriculum in ESN schools (No. 368)

Re: lectures outside own area (No. 368)

Re: extending Chair and Vice-Chair to 2-3 year period (Nos 368, 370)

Re: speech and language therapy month in N Ireland (No. 369)

Re: job adverts – need to own a car (No. 369)

Re: abolition of Stop Press in Bulletin (No. 369)

Re: (tablet) swallowing by ESN(S)/multiply handicapped children (No. 370, 387)

Re: clinical use of Bloom and Lahey language analysis (No. 370)

Re: vocabulary delay (No. 371)

Re: course for teachers and nursery nurses (Nos 371, 373)

Re: speech therapy~mental handicap national register proposed (No. 371)

Re: AAC adult mental handicap unit (No. 371)

Re: work prep/experience programme for school-leavers with disorders of communication (No. 372)

Re: hyperventilation syndrome (No. 372)

Re: post-graduate courses for speech therapists (Nos 372, 387)

Re: ice making product (No. 372)

Re: research (No. 372)

Re: repertory grids (No. 373)

Re: checklist for use with the mentally handicapped (No. 374)

Re: hypnotherapy (No. 374)

Re: intensive therapy for dyspraxic children (No. 374)

Re: management of the young disfluent child (No. 375)

Re: use of video in therapy (No. 376)

Re: Talking with Patients conference (No. 377)

Re: possible to publish in nursing magazines (No. 377)

Re: speech therapy~dual language (No. 377)

Re: Code-Müller scale of perceptions of psychosocial adjustment (No. 378)

Re: Parkinson's disease references (No. 378)

Re: request for clinical placement by American student (No. 378)

Re: single case research (No. 379)

Re: good quality tape recorders (No. 380)

Re: ADA leaflets (No. 380)

Re: research into non-verbal communication of adult dysphasic patients (No. 381)

Re: joint funding of language unit post (No. 381)

Re: stroke workshop (No. 382)

Re: communication aids research (No. 382)

Re: inclusion of more practical material in the journal (No. 382)

Re: core vocabulary for mentally handicapped adults (No. 383)

Re: standardisation of MTDDA (No. 383)

Re: reality orientation (No. 383)

Re: lateral 's' (No. 383)

Re: study day on speech therapy for medical practitioners (No. 383)

Re: fiberoptic naso-laryngoscopy (No. 383)

Re: problems in securing clinical placements (No. 384)

Re: young deaf adults seeking speech therapy (No. 385)

Re: therapists' group (No. 385)

Re: speech therapy~children in ESN(M) schools (No. 386)

Re: efficacy of preventative speech therapy in the west end of Newcastle research project (No. 386)

Re: request for feeder by adult with athetoid cerebral palsy (No. 387)

Re: video for sale of adults with communication problems (No. 387)

Re: cochlear implants (No. 387)

Re: multi-disciplinary group for mentally handicapped people (No. 388)

Re: video/audiovisual presentation of normal development (Nos 388, 403)

Re: speech therapy group looking at group work with children (No. 388)

Re: North East Speech Therapists' Association (No. 388)

Re: making video of speech therapy (No. 389)

Re: use of videofluoroscopy in acquired dysphagia/teams (Nos 389, 393)

Re: duplication of effort in developing screening tests (Nos 390, 394)

Re: speech therapy~ESL children (No. 392)

Re: stress in speech therapy (No. 392)

Re: pragmatic assessment of aphasia (No. 393)

Re: references for Blom-Singer (No. 393)

Re: 1981 Education Act and statements (Nos 393, 395)

Re: Signed English (No. 393)

Re: BJDC (No. 393)

Re: request for work in England from Canada (No. 394)

Re: neuropsychological interest group (No. 394)

Re: project on functional dysphonia (No. 394)

Re: speech therapist at NFER (No. 395, article in No. 402)

Re: number and poor quality of questionnaires (No. 395)

Re: student training allowance (No. 395)

Re: project in children's food refusal (No. 396)
Re: book and process of book review (No. 396)
Re: setting up a voice laboratory (No. 396)
Re: biofeedback in treatment of voice disorders (No. 396)
Re: idiopathic hypercalcaemia (No. 397)
Re: speech therapy~elderly mentally ill (No. 397)
Re: dyspraxic adults (No. 398)
Re: advice in organising study days (No. 398)
Re: chronic (adductor) spastic dysphonia (No. 398)
Re: GP advice on seeking speech therapy help (No. 399)
Re: speech therapy~memory groups (No. 399)
Re: advisory service to childminders (No. 399)
Re: area 'adviser' in speech therapy (No. 399)
Re: information wanted on gesture development (No. 400)
Re: private and NHS speech therapy (No. 402)
Re: use of music in speech therapy (No. 402)
Re: non-directive approach (Nos 402, 404)
Re: dummy/thumb-sucking project (No. 403)
Re: Newcastle course history (No. 404)
Re: errors in speech therapy managers' directory (No. 404)
Re: CST Badge (No. 404)
Re: lost unfilled post (No. 404)